ANNOUNCEMENTS

Munition Workers Needed.
Uncle Sam must have at once approximately forty-three hundred especially trained employees to assist in the manufacture of munition. This is patriotic civilian service and is vital to the successful prosecution of the work of the defense department. This call for men is urgent. Munition must be manufactured in tremendous quantities for our soldiers in France. No one factor will bring victory in this war. Ships must be constructed; transportation provided; food conserved; fuel saved; and munitions delivered promptly as demanded by the commanding officer of our overseas forces.

Tank Britannia in Hartford.
The British and Canadian Recruiting Mission is sending to Hartford, Thursday, April 4, E. D. 383. Tank Britannia, which will bring victory in this war. Ships must be constructed; transportation provided; food conserved; fuel saved; and munitions delivered promptly as demanded by the commanding officer of our overseas forces.

Meeting of Norwich Music Association.
The Norwich Music Association is to meet at Oldtime on the evening of Wednesday, April 10th, instead of the first Monday of the month, as customary.

AUDITORIUM
Complete Change of Programme Today. All New Comedy, Songs and Dances—See the Franching Chorus and Feature Pictures.

At the Auditorium today an entire new show will be presented—songs, new scenery, new costumes—entitled Drop It and Run, a very funny playlet written for laughs only, and in which Tom Carroll, that clever Hebrew comedian, and his partner, Joe Baker, will be seen at their best. Tomorrow (Thursday) evening there will be a large concert and all are invited to take part. Three prizes will be offered. The young men may select any lady of the chorus as a partner.

If you want good, clean, stirring, entertainment, you should see Madame Sonia Marlow in William Fox's latest photoplay, A Heart's Revenge, which is to be shown tonight for the last time at the Auditorium theatre. It has an excellent story, and many thrilling moments, which reach a climax in a spirited chase in a high powered motor boat. The beginning of the story which is told in a few words where the daughter of an attorney of the Russian Government is in love with a young U. S. aviator. An old Chinese chemist, who is a rival aviator to lose his initiative. This is done by a scheming baron who hopes to win the hand of Vera, daughter of the Russian aviator. The next William Fox picture at the Auditorium theatre will be The Island in which Jane and Katherine Lee are starred. It will be shown next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for a run of three days.

BREED THEATRE
Two Wonderful Features For Today and Thursday—Edith Storey in Revenge and Franklin Farnum in The Scarlet Car.

Plenty of real western atmosphere is shown in Revenge, a picture of Edward McArthur's novel, Hearts Steadfast, starring the favorite star, Edith Storey, which is the feature at the Bred theatre today and tomorrow. In this picture Miss Storey returns to the "western" type of role in which she first became famous as a screen star, and is seen to excellent advantage in her favorite type of role. The picture is bristling with situations of genuine excitement and suspense.

Franklin Farnum will also be seen in The Scarlet Car, a screen version of one of the best stories of the late Richard Harding Davis ever told. The picture is a thrilling reflection of romance and adventure and depicts in fast moving scenes of gripping interest the life of an American tourist who is killed by a band of desperadoes with unusual adventures and surprising happenings.

The famous Holmes travel series, showing a trip through Tokyo, completes this big double bill.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE
Smashing Comedy Drive at the Davis Theatre.

If any business man doubts the efficiency of good advertising, let him go to the Davis and see how it pays to advertise. It took just such a wide-awake dyes-in-the-way, progressive American as George M. Cohan to dramatize a soap advertisement and evolve the funniest play of his career. It is one of the capital and most heart-sweeping side all opposition and triumphantly shriek at the old man, it pays to advertise.

The play is a whirlwind, teeming with speed, furious fun, and side-splitting laughter and it is considered by the wide-awake George M. Cohan's brightest and best.

Tomorrow night the company will present Margaret Livingston's greatest dramatic triumph, The Lie.

BRIEF STATE NEWS
Rocky Hill—Miss Esther Balchelder was one of the Woman's college events who assisted at the silver tea given at the Center church house, Hartford, Monday afternoon.

Danbury—General Manager Crute of the street railway company entered yesterday that the company expects that the five pay-as-you-enter cars will be delivered in about two weeks.
